

Temple Chaverim Brit Kehillah – Religious School Code of Conduct

At Temple Chaverim, we strive to create a religious youth community based on mutual respect and a sense of personal well-being. Chaverim students will treat others with kavod (honor and respect) because we are created b'tzelem Elohim (in the image of God). We want our children to feel safe and comfortable while here for learning, worship, or socializing. All students and participants must read the Brit Kehillah and must indicate their complete acceptance of these rules by their signatures, as well as by the signatures of their parents. The Staff, Teachers and I look forward to working with parents to create a successful, productive and fun year. Please let us know how we can best assist your children in creating a learning environment that is right for them.

We expect the following from our students and families at Temple Chaverim:

- Exhibit respectful behavior that contributes to maintaining a positive learning environment
- Demonstrate courtesy
- Behave in a responsible manner
- Attend classes regularly and arrive on time
- Obey all class rules
- Respect the rights and privileges of all students, teachers, advisors, administrators, and parents
- Remain in designated supervised areas
- Respect the property of others, Temple Chaverim property and its facilities

We have developed the following steps toward maintaining a desirable and safe learning environment when negative behavior is displayed.

- Inappropriate behavior will be discussed between the student and the teacher • At the discretion of the teacher, the student will be sent to an administrator. Parents will be called if the child cannot return to class without causing disruption.
- The student may be asked to write an explanation and have it signed by the parent and returned to school.
- If negative behavior persists, parents may be asked to monitor the student's classes and assist in teaching acceptable classroom practices.
- Serious actions may be addressed on a case-by-case basis.
