1. MEMBER TICKETS: to be completed by all members desiring High Holy Days Tickets.

- No person will be admitted to services without a ticket.
- Each individual (adults and children under the age of 30) living in a household may be entitled to a High Holy Days ticket. In Section 1 of the MULTI-PART FORM, please list all members of your household family, as well as the ages and grades of your children.
- In order for your High Holy Days ticket order to be processed, we remind you that your account must be current. If you have met your financial obligations, your tickets (as well as last minute tickets) can be picked up on the following dates and times: Tuesday (September 24) 9:30am – 4:30pm; Wednesday (September 25) 9:30am – 4:30pm and 6:00pm – 7:00pm; Thursday (September 26) 9:30am – 4:30pm; Friday (September 27): 9am – 1pm; Monday (September 30) 9:30am - 4:30 pm; Tuesday (October 1) 9:00am – 6:00pm.

2. FAMILY GUEST TICKETS: to be completed by members desiring tickets for non-household family member guests

- Family members who belong to other URJ (Union for Reform Judaism) congregations may request courtesy tickets at our Temple by having their home congregation mail, fax or email (julie@templechaverim.org) a High Holy Days Courtesy Request Form to the Temple office (516-692-0208).
- For unaffiliated, non-household family members, THERE IS A LIMIT OF 6 (FAMILY) MEMBER GUEST TICKETS PER MEMBER FAMILY @ $150 each. Non-member guest tickets are $600 each.
- In Section 2 of the MULTI-PART FORM, indicate the number of tickets you are ordering and print the name, relationship and address of each non-household family member for whom a ticket is ordered.

3. BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE: to be completed by members honoring departed loved ones in our Book of Remembrance

- It is traditional during the High Holy Days to bring the memory of our Jewish ancestors forward into the present. It is also traditional at this time to bring to the forefront of our memory those departed loved ones from our own personal past, inscribing their names in a Book of Remembrance. This book will be distributed during the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur and will be on the website.
- For your convenience, your loved ones who are known to our Temple are listed on the Book of Remembrance Yahrzeit Letter, which is enclosed in this packet. Please circle your loved ones' names whom you wish to honor in the Book of Remembrance and return the Yahrzeit Letter to the office with your order form.
- If you purchased a Memorial Plaque from September 13, 2023 to September 16, 2024, inclusion in this year's Book of Remembrance is FREE.
- Please print the names of any additional loved ones whose memory you desire to honor in the space provided in Section 3 of the MULTI-PART FORM.
- The cost for the first three (3) names in this book is $36 PER NAME. Each additional name (after the first 3 names) is $18 PER NAME.

- 4. FAMILY SERVICE INFORMATION: Parents are required to attend with their children.
Rosh Hashanah, Thursday, October 3rd @ 10:30 AM and Yom Kippur, Saturday, October 12th @ 10:30 AM

SECURITY

A TICKET AND PHOTO I.D. ARE REQUIRED TO ENTER THE BUILDING. Each individual (adults and children, members and non-members) will need to show their High Holy Days ticket for admission to the building.

DECORUM

As the Sanctuary is a place of prayer and meditation, we ask that families respect the spirituality and dignity at all times by refraining from activities that can be disruptive to those worshipping including conversation, eating, gum chewing, playing video games, text messaging and excessive walking in/out of the sanctuary during services. Families are responsible for their children's decorum throughout the services (and in all parts of the building and grounds). We remind you that smoking is not permitted anywhere on Temple Chaverim property. Please silence cell phones and pagers in the building.

PARKING

Due to the limited number of parking spaces available, please limit cars to one per family or try to carpool. For safety reasons, please avoid parking on Washington Avenue. For the High Holy Days this year, our neighbors at St. Margaret's Church are permitting our worshippers to park in their parking lot, unless there is a funeral at the church. We will have buses going to and from the Church parking lot to the Temple for your convenience. Please be a respectful neighbor and DO NOT PARK ON LAWN AREAS or in restricted areas or in any manner that may cause our friends at St. Margaret's to regret their kindness.

All order forms including Book of Remembrance and purchase of additional tickets are available on our website.
